'Nifty valuations are reasonable'

SANIAY KIIMAR

Head of Investments, PNB MetLife What is your take on the country's economic prospects? India is poised for solid growth over the next couple of years. The growth is coming on a very low base, Second, there are many projects which have been awarded but the delivery or execution hasn't been there. These will pick up over the next

India's valuations are reasonable from a medium to long term perspective, given the country's growth prospects, says SANJAY KUMAR, head of investments at insurer PNB MetLife. A manager of assets worth sharp bounce-back is possible.

So, even if the recovery is back-ended. I think the market will take that into its stride and start looking at 2016-17.

₹12,000 crore, he shares his investment outlook with Samie Modak. Edited excerpts:

the past few years have been tions are reasonable, not overcouple of quarters. You have a declining inflation scenario. falling interest rates and low oil prices. All these will transform into a major consumption story for India.

double-digit growth in earnings

(for this financial year). Profits in

The market is highly optimistic on corporate How do valuations look? earnings growth. Do you The market had this feeling of chare that? disappointment, A major con-The consensus estimates is high cern was that things were not moving on the ground. At this point of time, the Nifty valua- on a falling interest rate, www.business-standard.com depressed and to that extent, a valued if one considers India's medium and long-term growth story.

Which sectors look the most attractive? We are quite positive on banks. They are a strong play on consumption and on financial sayings. We are expecting an increase in financial savings. We also like automobiles, a play For full interview, visit improved consumer sentiment and low oil prices. We are positive on the (information) technology sector given recovery in the US.

On which sectors do you remain underweight?

We are positive but underweight on the consumer sector, given the valuations. Not so positive on real estate. We are underweight on telecom, given the competition sce-(spectrum)auction